If TGIASTIKA — a SPEEDY AND CERTAIN CURE FOR neuralgia, tie delicroux, toothache, nervous head ache, and rheumatims in the head, and a sure preventive of convulsions, or any other complaints attendant upon early childhood during the period of tecthing, has been discovered and is now being successfully administered in the form of a medicated necklace, to be worn next the skin by the patient. An eminent German physician discovered the virtues of the valuable medicines of which the beads of the necklace are made, and prescribed the mode of application. The notice of the public is not therefore, called to a quark medicine, but to a nection ment recommended by one of the most sminent of the faculty, as peculiarly powerful in acting through the pores of the skin directly upon the discussed or excited nerves, affording generally, instant, and always pormanent relief, and effecting a permanent cure. Patients who, at twenty four hours trial of the medicated neck lace, according to prescription, due no relief, may, at the close of that period, by immediately returning the same receive back their money.

A CURE BY HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS OF

A CURE BY HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT AND PILLS OF a tomor in the knee.—Eighteen months ago Mra. Jones. of Fortugal street, Lincola's inn fields, caught a severe cold, which settled in her knee, and formed a tomor on the joint, which, in the course of time, became so stiff that she could not bend it, and continued so for twelve months. She tried remedy after remedy, but to no purpose, and she became fearfully alarmed. At last she rubbed liolloway's ointment into it unsparlugly every night and morning, and took the pills, which completely dispersed the tumor, and the joint has become again as plient as ever, and free from pain. Sold by all the venders of medicine throughout the British empire, and by those in the United States, at 37 % cents. SS cents, and $1 50 per box. Wholesale at Mr JOSEPH HORSEY'S, Maiden lane, New York, and at the proprietor's, 244, Strand, London.

Here, also, every female—the wife, the mother—tase either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates an important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and to most efficient remedies, and the most certain mode e cure, in every complaint to which here sex is subject. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Ohit.)

Dr. A. M. MAURERAU, 129 Liberty street,

My Dear Sir—My wife has been percopulbly sinking to some three years or more. In consequence of her great angulab and suffering assue months before and during its come three years or more. In consequence of her great angulab and suffering assue months before and during its confinement—every successive one more and more debitating and prostrating her, putting her life in unamanad danger, and which was, on the last occasion, despated of supposed this state of things was inevitable, and resigned mayself to meet the worst. At this time, (not as some prospect to meet the worst. At this time, (not as containing some matters reaching my case. On its reason and perusal I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages is: parted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Basomesaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which I little conserved was possible. But for this, see another year would have peased over my head, in all humas probability my wife would have been to her grave, and my children motherless.

It is, of course, impracticable to convey more fully the serious athieuts remard of, as they are of a matere stried y intended for the nearriad, or those contemplating marriage. WONDERS, MYSTERIES, AND MIRACLER, the most magnificent and amazing ever performed in America. Among the many mighty experiments is that of SECOND RIGHT, which is considered by the philosophers and savans of the day, the same of wonder and mystery, defying their corry attempt to penetrate the unfathomable scoret. The great variety of gegreous fonts of NECROMANCY, LEGERDEMAIN, AND DIABLERIE, nightly executed by Professor Heller, are exceedingly beautiful and astonishing. His is as prolific as ever; and his novel invention of the MYSTERIOUS RAPPINGS, throws into obscurity the humbug Rochaster knockers.
